SC	Steering Committee
AA	Alcoholics Anonymous

ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

VAIAA is the legal name of the corporation and recognized as such by the Department of the Treasury under Section 501 (C) (3) of the IRS Code. SC provides oversight and is answerable to IGR. Corporate records follow the calendar year, are maintained in a double entry accounting system on a cash basis, and as much as possible adhere to generally accepted accounting principles. These Procedural Guidelines are specific to this office which also operates under broader principles and guidelines of Alcoholics Anonymous, specifically the 12 Traditions, the Guidelines for Central or Intergroup Offices, the AA Service Manual and 12 Concepts for World Services.

PURPOSE OF VAIAA

VAIAA is not Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) however its purpose is to serve the members of AA. VAIAA service area is Districts 7, 25, 27 and 37 of Area 72 of AA. VAIAA purpose is to share information, carry the message to the suffering alcoholic and work in cooperation both within and outside of its service area.

SERVICES

Services of VAIAA include, but are not limited to:

1. Publishes a monthly newsletter containing information about AA activities in and around its service area.
2. Publishes and distributes directory of AA meeting within its service area.
3. Forms appropriate committees for various AA Activities and workshops, such as, but not limited to:
 - a. Public Information
 - b. Answering Service and 12-Step call records
 - c. Social, fundraising and informational events
 - d. Other special functions authorized by IGR
4. Maintains a supply of AA literature, books and recovery related items for resale.
5. Maintains an IG office and employs an IG office manager and other such employees and volunteers as needed to serve AA groups within its service area.
6. Assists in the establishment of new AA groups within its service area when requested.
7. Acts in an advisory capacity only in the exchange of ideas and information between AA groups within its service area when requested.

INTERGROUP COMMITTEE

1. AA groups within the VAIAA service area may have as many IGR attend IG meetings as they desire and all in attendance are entitled to have a voice at the IG meetings however each group is only entitled to one vote.
2. IG has not authority to decide who in an AA group assigns as an IGR however it is suggested that they assign a person who is an active member in the group that they represent.
3. Regular meetings of the IGR shall be held on the third Monday of each month at 6:30pm. Zoom video services will be provided for attendance.
4. SC providing a one week notice to all registered IG groups shall be permitted to change the day, time and location of the regular IG meeting in any month and may call for any special IG meeting of the IGR as needed. Notice will be sent via email and/or telephone call to all IGR on file.
5. IG committee delegates authority to the SC to run the business of VAIAA in a legal, moral and ethical manner.
6. At least four (4) IGR and four (4) SC members must be in attendance of regular and special IGR meeting to constitute a quorum.

VOTING RIGHTS: IGR MEETING

1. IGR or their alternate may vote on all IG matters calling for a vote.
2. Only IGR may vote at IG meetings.
3. SC members only may vote if they have been designated as an IGR.
4. In the event of a tie vote, the issue will be referred back to the AA group for discussion and a vote retaken at the next IGR meeting.

STEERING COMMITTEE

SC exists because monthly IGR meetings do not have enough continuity of attendees and here are too many members to reach prompt business decisions. The authority to make business decisions in the best interest of IG is delegated to the SC.

Responsibilities:

1. Prepare a yearly financial forecast.
2. Select a competent IG office manager with experience and wisdom.
3. Provide general policies, plans and responsibilities to the IG office manager.
4. Provide general oversight and supervision for the IG office manager, with ample freedom and delegation of authority to the IG office manager to make day-to-day decisions.
5. Assist the IG office manager in office administration duties.
6. Review and approve monthly financial statements.
7. Other duties as necessary.
8. Operate IG as a legal business in compliance with applicable laws and in an ethical manner.
9. SC strives to run VAIAA from funding sources comprised of product sales, group contributions, individual contributions and fundraisers. The goal is to provide the needed services and break even financially. Donations follow AA tradition of self-supporting.

STEERING COMMITTEE MEMBERS

1. IGR will elect eight (8) SC members who may or may not be IGR. These positions are Chair, Vice-Chair, Treasurer, Recording Secretary, Position 1, Position 2, Position 3, Position 4.
2. The ninth member is the IG office manager which is not an elected position.
3. SC members are required to attend both SC and IGR meetings.
4. The terms of the IG office manager shall be unlimited but he/she may be removed at any time by the SC.

VOTING RIGHTS: SC MEMBERS

All SC members are allowed to vote except the Chair who only votes in case of a tie. The IG office manager votes on all issues except where a conflict of interest may exist.

QUORUM: SC MEETINGS

A quorum at any regular or special meeting of the SC shall consist of at least four (4) SC members.

SC MEETINGS

1. Regular meetings of the SC will be held on the second Monday of each month at 6:00pm. Zoom video services will be available for attendance.
2. Non-SC members are entitled to attend SC meetings and to be heard at those meetings however they do not have voting rights.
3. Non-SC members may be dismissed during a portion of the meeting where confidentiality is required, for example, a review of the IG office manager's performance.

VOTING PROCEDURES

1. If a motion is made, if it receives a second, then it becomes an active issue.
2. Upon receiving a second the motion then becomes a discussion item.
3. Amendments to the motion are only effective if the person making the original motion accepts the amendment.
4. A simple majority is required for a motion to pass.
5. After a motion is passed, those who opposed the motion may have a minority opinion heard. If the minority opinion is formed as a motion, and if it receives a second, a new vote is taken.
6. Those entitled to vote may abstain from voting. When there is an abstention, only those who participated in the voting process are to be considered. For example, if there are 20 IGR, 11 votes are needed to pass a motion. If 10 abstain, only 6 are needed to pass a motion.
7. Voting procedures apply at both SC and IGR meetings as well as any special committees that may have been established as allowed by these guidelines.
8. While this process loosely follows the procedures as set in Roberts Rules of Order (RRO) it should be noted that VAIAA has not adopted RRO.

ELECTION OF STEERING COMMITTEE MEMBERS

All SC members shall be elected by the IGR for a term of two years, with elections held each year for half of the SC members ("staggered" terms). SC members are eligible for reelection if they have not served in the same position for a full year. For example: If a SC member has been elected mid-term to fill a vacancy they may be reelected to the same position for a full term.
